- (xi) A chairman of a Committee shall have a casting vote in respect to any business of the committee.

8. ELECTION OF OFFICE BEARERS

- (i) Nominations of candidates for election as Presidents-Elect of the AAANZ pursuant to Clause 37.2(h) of the Constitution shall be signed by a member of Council as nominator and countersigned by the candidate.
- (ii) If only one candidate is nominated for election to an office referred to in By-Law 8(i) the Chairman of the meeting shall declare the candidate as nominated to be elected to the appropriate office.

- (iii) If more than one candidate is nominated for election to any office then a ballot shall be conducted at the meeting amongst the members present at such meeting and such ballot shall be conducted in accordance with the following provisions and otherwise as Council from time to time determines.
- (iv) A member voting shall mark his or her ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom he or she votes as his or her first preference, and shall give contingent votes for all the remaining candidates by placing the numbers 2, 3, 4, (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite their names so as to indicate the order of his or her preference for them.
- (v) The Secretary or his or her appointee shall conduct the ballot for election.
- (vi) The ballot shall be conducted as a secret ballot and votes shall be counted as provided in this By-Law.
- (vii) The Secretary shall count the first preference votes given for each candidate and the candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes shall, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, be elected.
- (viii) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes then:
 - (a) the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded, and each ballot-paper counted to him shall be counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference;
 - (b) if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes, and counting each of his ballot-papers to the unexcluded candidate next in the order of the voter's preference, shall be repeated until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
- (ix) If on any count two or more candidates have an equal number of votes, and one of them has to be excluded, the Chairman of the meeting shall decide which shall be excluded; and if in the final count two candidates have an equal number of votes the Chairman shall have a casting vote, in deciding who shall be elected. In By-Law 8(viii) an absolute majority of votes means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of ballot-papers. The casting vote of the Chairman given pursuant to this By-Law shall be included in reckoning an absolute majority of votes.
