2021 AFAANZ Conference

4-6 July

Call for Papers

The 2021 AFAANZ Conference organised by the Accounting & Finance Association of Australia and New Zealand (AFAANZ) is scheduled to be held in Melbourne, Australia on 4-6 July 2021 but will be held online if required. Updated guidance about whether the conference is to be held physically or virtually will be given as soon as possible.

AFAANZ is devoted to a very broad spectrum of accounting and finance research and we welcome innovative research approaches as well as those that are well established. Papers are invited in the broad areas of accounting, finance, auditing, corporate governance, information and communication technologies, accounting education, ethics, corporate social responsibility, tax and related fields. All papers will be subject to blind peer review. AFAANZ encourages new and developing researchers to attend the conference. This year we will again extend a discount to first time AFAANZ conference attendees and full time higher degree research students.

The two plenary speakers at the conference will be:

- Garry Monroe, Professor of Accounting, University of New South Wales
- Phillip Stocken, Jack Byrne Professor of Accounting, Dartmouth College

Guidelines for Submission

Further details regarding the submission of papers will be made available on the AFAANZ conference website. Papers can be submitted at <https://www.openconf.org/afaanz2021/openconf.php> from the start of December 2020.

Papers will only be considered if at least one author is an individual member of AFAANZ. AFAANZ members also enjoy a reduced registration fee for the conference. Alternatively, an AUD$50 submission fee can be paid (please email info@afaanz.org for details).

Submission Date

Papers must be submitted by Monday, 8 February 2021, 5pm Australian Eastern Daylight Standard Time. Late submissions will NOT be accepted.

Notification

Email notification of the outcome of submissions is expected to be sent to the submitting author by early April 2021. Updated guidance about whether the conference is to be held physically or virtually will be given as soon as possible.

Enquiries

Any enquiries regarding the submission process for papers may be directed to:

Nicola Beatson and Yaowen Shan at chair@afaanz.org

Call for Papers

2021 International Accounting Standards Board Research Forum will be held in conjunction with Accounting and Finance.

The Forum will be held in a major city in southern Asia on 1-2 November 2021 but held virtually if travel is not possible. The Editors of the A&F/IASB Research Forum Special Issue, Tom Smith and Gary Monroe, invite submissions that provide evidence to help inform the standard-setting activities of the IASB.

For full details of the Call for Papers, click HERE.

Papers must be submitted via the online system no later than 31 March 2021. Decisions on submitted papers will be made by 30 June 2021.

Postponement of 32nd Asian-Pacific Conference on International Accounting Issues

In response to the continuing global impacts of COVID-19 we have decided to further postpone the 32nd Asian-Pacific Conference on International Accounting Issues to 2022. While we are disappointed at having to take this action, the health and wellbeing of our colleagues and participants is of the utmost importance. We have re-scheduled the 32nd conference to take place on 16-19 October 2022, in Wellington, New Zealand, so please save the date!

Professor Stephen Penman, Graduate School of Business, Columbia University, will be the keynote speaker for the conference. Submission of papers for the 32nd conference will close on 15 May 2022.

The website for the conference is www.apconference.org

We wish you all the very best and hope that you stay healthy during these uncertain times. If you have any questions, please email us at info@apconference.org
