

CALL FOR PAPERS

JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY ACCOUNTING AND ECONOMICS (JCAE) MID-YEAR SYMPOSIUM

WEDNESDAY, 3rd OF JULY 2024

AUCKLAND UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY

The 2024 JCAE Mid-Year Symposium is jointly organised by Auckland University of Technology and The University of the Sunshine Coast, Queensland, Australia. The 2024 Mid-Year Symposium will be held at the Auckland University of Technology, AUT City Campus. The symposium provides a platform for accounting, economics, and corporate governance academics, especially from the Asia-Pacific region to present cutting-edge research findings.

KEY-NOTE SPEAKER: PROFESSOR LOUISE LU

Louise Lu is a Professor of Accounting at Australian National University. Her research interests include financial accounting, corporate social responsibility, and corporate finance. Her recent publications are at the intersection of capital markets and health. Louise has an outstanding research record, having published in leading journals such as the Journal of Accounting and Economics, Journal of Accounting Research, The Accounting Review, Accounting, Organisations and Society, Strategic Management Journal, Journal of Management, and Auditing: A Journal of Practice & Theory.

PLENARY PAPERS

The Mid-Year Symposium features several plenary papers. Each presentation will be followed by a discussion by a discussant and Q & A from the audience. Papers accepted for plenary presentations will be considered for publication in JCAE, subject to further review and editorial approval.

Manuscripts should be submitted via the JCAE editorial manager under “Conferences”. A submission fee of US$100 is required for plenary papers which will be refunded in the event the paper is accepted for presentation. In your letter to the editor, please state that the paper is for presentation at the 2024 Mid-year symposium. Submissions must be received no later than March 15, 2024. Authors can expect to be notified of the review outcome by May 17, 2024.
